Oakwood Worldwide Names Rebecca Tann as Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing

Company looks to accelerate global business growth through new appointment

LOS ANGELES – Feb. 20, 2018 – Oakwood Worldwide, wholly owned by Mapletree Investments, today announced the appointment of Rebecca Tann as senior vice president of sales and marketing. Her strong expertise in sales and marketing, as well as her leadership in global organizations are skillsets that will support Oakwood’s global transformation and growth strategy. Tann’s appointment follows a series of leadership announcements from Chief Executive Officer Chris Ahearn as he strengthens the organizations executive team.

“Tann will play a significant role in executing our transformation strategy through her proven track record of delivering outstanding business growth and sales results,” said Chris Ahearn, Chief Executive Officer, Oakwood Worldwide. “We are delighted to have her join the executive team. Her market experience, leadership and diverse skillset will help us continue to strengthen Oakwood Worldwide into a market-centric, globally integrated company.”

In her newly appointed role, Tann will be focused on setting the strategic sales and marketing direction for the organization to drive profitable growth. TJ Spencer, vice president global sales, and Christine Moore, vice president global marketing, will report directly to Tann.

Tann has led a variety of national and global teams for renowned brands such as Life Time Fitness, Regus, Ford, FedEx, Gateway and Disney. She leads with a team-oriented approach and has experience building successful departments from the ground up. Her dynamic leadership style has resulted in the achievement of impactful business results in a variety of industries.
