

Appointment Patrick Hegan at Flexi-Lets

Flexi-lets - one of the South East's leading service apartment providers is delighted to announce the appointment of Everyport Consulting's Patrick Hegan as CEO. Serving a wide range of UK and international business traveller clients, this marks a key step for Flexi-lets who are seeking to further expand their business nationwide.

Formerly the holder of key roles at Oakwood, Silverdoor and The Ascott Ltd, Patrick will play a key part in helping Flexi-lets meet their aggressive growth goals as well as developing and improving the service offering to clients. Patrick has a formidable reputation for exponentially growing pipeline and creating new revenue generation opportunities for companies in the serviced apartment sector. His involvement with Flexi-lets is seen as a positive step in their quest for growth and expansion.

Hegan says "I am delighted to be working with Flexi-lets and helping to take them on the next step of their growth journey"

Notes to Editors:

For more information please contact
lisa@fogomarketing.com 07976702525

ABOUT FLEXI-LETS Established over ten years ago, Flexi-lets has a growing portfolio of properties in the South and South East all located near main transport routes and business parks.

ABOUT EVERYPORT CONSULTING

Everyport brokers successful, profitable partnerships across the global corporate housing sector. Our expertise, gained over years in the worldwide serviced apartment industry, enables accommodation providers to maximise long stay business and drive enquiry pipelines, securing more of the right type of business for their properties.