

House Of Fisher Grow Property Portfolio By Over 10%

House of Fisher are excited to announce they now have dedicated blocks of apartments in Athena Court, Maidenhead (formerly known as the Heights at Athena Court) and Central Gate, Newbury. The exciting expansion adds two more centralised and dedicated buildings into the heart of the popular areas of Maidenhead and Newbury to expand their portfolio to six centralised and dedicated buildings, the others being 100 Kings Road \(Reading\), Beneficial House \(Bracknell\), City Wall House \(Reading\) and Central House \(Camberley\).

The diverse range of unit types and high quantity of serviced apartments within each property make them ideal for large volume and group bookings, an ever increasing requirement amongst corporate guests.

This expansion, along with the March launch of their brand new Bridge House Serviced Apartments in Fleet, has resulted in an increase of over 10% in House of Fisher's portfolio of apart-hotels and serviced apartments in 2019. The investment demonstrates the positive growth and outlook for the global ASAP SME Business of the Year 2017 winners and Highly Commended Team of the Year 2018, who operate 13 properties across eight locations within the Thames Valley.

Trine Oestergaard Stafford, House of Fisher Managing Director, said: "This is a really exciting time for us and a great start to 2019. Having two more dedicated buildings and opening a new location is very much in line with our growth strategy. We believe this further cements House of Fisher as the Serviced Apartments market leader in the Thames Valley"

House of Fisher have availability and are able to take reservations immediately for their expanded range, please visit www.houseoffisher.com or call 01189 514151 for further details and to discuss your requirements.