B-Square opens its doors for Brussels expats.

This month B-Square will open its doors to house expats and business travelers in the city of Brussels.

This amazing apartment complex is situated within the Brussels Canal district, an area in full expansion.

Kanal Centre Pompidou, a 35,000 m² cultural Hub in the buildings of the former Citroën garage, and the Tour & Taxis pleasure complex are situated just around the corner.

Furthermore the building lies in walking distance of the historic centre and near World Trade Center where many multinationals and European institutions are located. It has easy road and public transport connections which make it a key location.

B-Square offers awesome and spacious serviced apartments with a high level of finishing that will accommodate residents in stylish surroundings.

With this new acquisition BBF reaches the 1700 units mark, ensuring its market leading position in Brussels.

For more information regarding bookings, please contact the BBF team on +32 (0)2 705 05 21 or send your email to sales@bbf.be.
