Serviced Apartment and Aparthotel Specialists

The MRP Group Are Offering Free Advice And Consultations To All Operators During This Challenging Time.

"We took up The MRP Group's offer of free assistance. They have helped us negotiate agreements with our landlords, and assisted in stabilising our cash flow during uncertain times. They were a great help to our company!"

Profit and Loss (P&L) Review

Understanding cashflow is crucial for operators and is now more important than it has ever been. The MRP Group will use our experience to analyse your P&L to help you better understand your cashflow at this time. Business liquidity and cash flow should be priority.

Rental Negotiations

We can assist management in identifying where conversations and negotiations on contracts with landlords should be had. We can work on behalf of operators (no fee) to negotiate temporary rent free, holiday periods and top up agreements.

Balance of Inventory

It is crucial for businesses to balance removing inventory now to minimise cost with keeping sufficient stock on the books for when there is a bounce in the economy. We have the knowledge and expertise to help advise you on the best ways this can be achieved.

Business Stability

We will work alongside you and your team towards achieving business stability during these uncertain times.

Revenue Driver and Cost Control

Our team have extensive experience in identifying additional revenue drivers and managing business costs. Our experience includes managing operational businesses through the Russian Oil Crisis, 9/11 and the Global Financial Crisis.
